Help Your library and Help Yourself

The Morrill Memorial Library is one of the greatest assets of the town of Norwood. The Friends of the Library promotes use of the library by:

- Sponsoring special activities and speakers at the Library
- Contributing to English as a Second Language and other programs
- Funding the book club and other groups
- Raising money for books, CDs, DVDs and other Library materials

Please consider joining the Friends of the Library, where you can:

- Help raise money through book sales and other events
- Attend special activities for Friends
- Help direct how the Friend can best support the Library

Please fill out and mail the application for Friends membership. You'll be glad you did!
